SENIORS SEEM SHAKEN

At the last football game against Pasadena, sadness seemed to hit Karen Lees' and Cindy Brittians' hearts. But they were not alone for other seniors had the same feelings. Many were realizing that they would all too soon be saying good-bye to friends that they might never see again. Struck by this thought, tears could be seen in the eyes of many as the last Alma Mater was sung.

SENIORS TOUR WASHINGTON

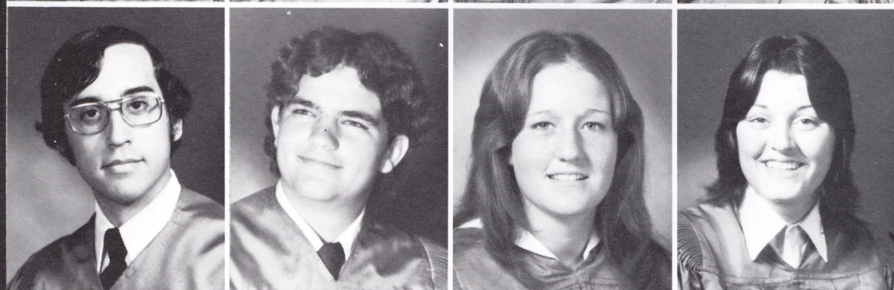

On January 11-17, 68 students flew to Washington, D.C. to participate in governmental procedures. They were able to see the Supreme Court in session. There were banquets, tours, and political discussions. Here Jodie Dunbar and Sherry Sellars are enjoying having their picture taken, while Wana Bauer and Theresa Mulcahy are a little confused about the plane ride.

TALENTS ARE DISCOVERED

There were many different activities one could get involved in at Rayburn. Denise King and Billy Kirchman were enrolled in playschool. Denise learned how to ride piggy-back and shoot the dove at the same time. Nelson "ENOS" Blanchard was enrolled in homemaking. Enos just learned how to put on mascara.

SENIORS ENJOY ENCHANTED EVENING

Saturday night April 24, was the night seniors awaited for 4 years. The prom was held at the Marriott Hotel Ballroom. About 6:00 the freeway was like a Sam Rayburn convoy. People started arriving at the Marriott about 6:30. Pictures were taken by a professional photographer. Girls in their long flowing dresses, boys in their tux and tails. The clock moved around to 7:30 and the meal was served. After dinner Roy Poston, Master of Ceremonies announced Senior Spotlight and Class officers. Rocky Lane — alias "Mole" — senior class President, announced Sandy Jagers and Steve Massey as Mr. and Miss Sam Rayburn. "Fox River" and "Spectrum" were the bands. They played all kinds of music: rock-n-roll, country and western, and disco. The crowd went wild when they played "Cotton Eyed Joe." Some also made a soul train. Although it was flooding outside, it didn't stop anyone from having a good time. Dim lights and a candle on each table contributed to the atmosphere. If everyone wasn't up dancing, he was walking around taking pictures and looking over everyone else's threads. The time passed quickly and at 12:00 the Prom and Banquet was over. It was a night never to be forgotten.

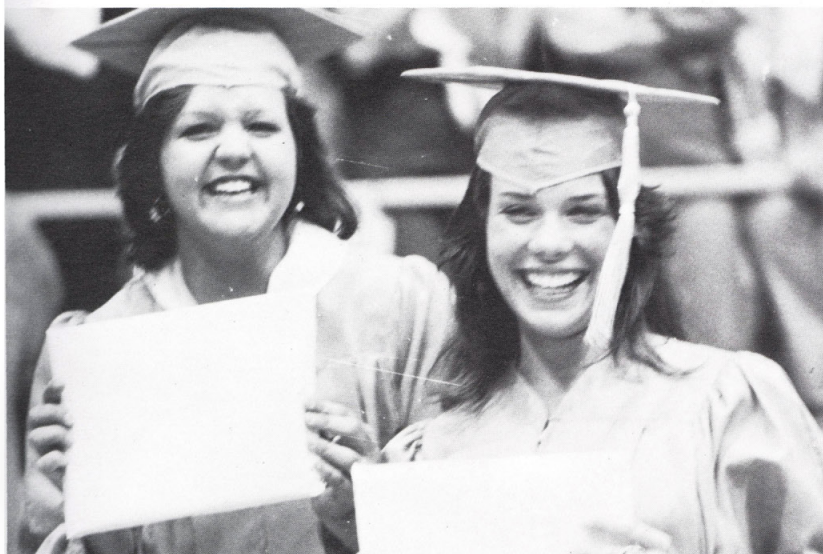

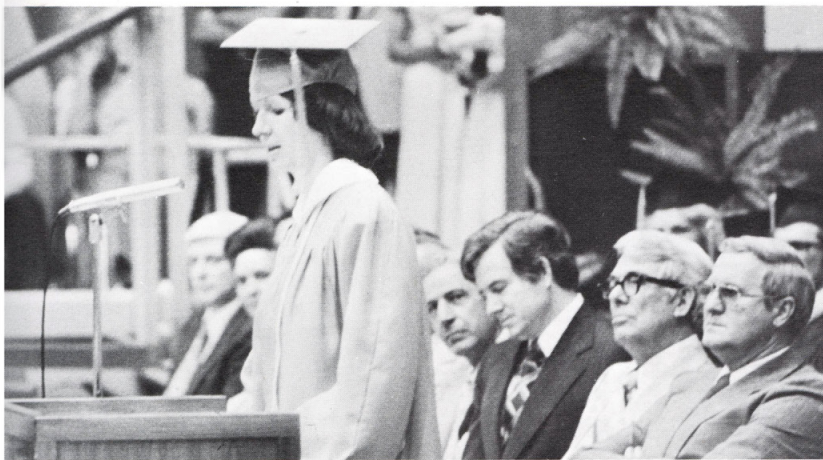

SENIORS LIVE IT UP

On May 19, seniors joined together for a day of excitement. It started out with a brunch given by the junior class. This was the time that everyone was taking pictures, signing books, and passing out cards. Tears began to flow more heavily when the Madrigals sang their last song "He Ain't Heavy He's My Brother." At 11:00 seniors were out and everyone met on West Beach for an all day party.

SENIORS ARE SET FREE

On Tuesday, May 25, almost 600 seniors gathered for their last time together for graduation. Keri Kinnard was the Student Speaker. Sandy Jagers gave the invocation and Steve Stanfield gave the benediction. Students were thinking of the future while others were thinking of the past as they awaited their diplomas.
