What is Campus Chronicles?

From student and employee achievements to events, the Campus Chronicles is a one-stop-shop for school-centered news.

This newsletter strives to inform, involve, engage and connect the district through storytelling and photography. These stories are produced by campus staff and will be featured online each month by the Office of Communication.

With more than 56,000 students and over 7,400 faculty and staff, amazing things are happening every day. Our storytellers help to reinforce the positive image Pasadena ISD has continued to maintain for years.

Who We Are

The Office of Communication works collaboratively with campus communication liaisons to share news happening in schools throughout the district. Comprised of campus staff, liaisons are appointed by school administrators to pitch story ideas and provide information and photos regarding student and staff recognitions, events and more.

Campus staff are encouraged to contact communication liaisons so they can submit newsworthy items to specialists in the Office of Communication.

Pasadena ISD celebrates National Grandparents Day

Several Pasadena ISD schools decided to “do something grand” and invited grandparents to visit students at their campuses for National Grandparents Day, September 13. The day recognizes the importance of familial relationships and pays tribute to grandmothers and grandfathers for providing their support, compassion and wisdom to loved ones. Campuses celebrated with various activities including an open house, lunch and breakfast with their grandchildren.

At the Lewis Career and Technical High School, a crowd of grandparents filled pre-kindergarten classrooms to take part in various activities with Junior Academy students.

Activities ranged from arts and crafts, story time to an ice-cream party.

National Grandparents Day is observed on the first Sunday after Labor Day.

Parks Elementary

Lakeshore Learning Store donates supplies

Parks Elementary staff have developed a blossoming relationship with local business partners. Lakeshore Learning Store representatives, Richard Gomez and Chad Minor, stopped by the school to treat staff to lunch and special gifts just before the first day of classes. Staff said it was a day to remember. Thank you Lakeshore for putting a smile on our teachers' faces.
