

ED.D. IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP INFO SESSION

Individuals wishing to advance their careers with a Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership. The doctoral program will offer its first doctoral cohort at the UHCL Pearland Campus and Main campus. This information session will provide an opportunity to learn more about the specifics of the program and meet with some of the professors.

- October 11, 2018 from 4:30-6:30 p.m.
- November 29, 2018 from 4:30-6:30 p.m.(UHCL Main Campus)
- December 6, 2018 from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

You can acquire the knowledge, experience and leadership skills to thrive in current and future educational environments. You will enjoy great facilities, resources, professors, networking opportunities, and a nurturing environment for students. NO GRE Required! Now the doctoral candidates can either take the GRE or a local writing assessment at the university that is cheaper and faster than the GRE.

The program is also configured in a cohort model, allowing students to have greater support with their peers.

Specializations available in:

- Superintendent.
- Higher Education.
- Curriculum and Instruction.
- Special Populations.

Learn more and register for the information session at www.uhcl.edu/pearland/enrollment-services/.